Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

When you pray the Rosary in the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament, you love Jesus with the Heart of Mary and offer to Jesus the perfect adoration of Mary. Jesus receives your holy hour as if Mary herself were making it. Mary enclosed you in her Heart and Jesus accepts your hour with Him as coming directly from the Heart of His Very own Mother.

OLMC's St. Therese Chapel is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week! We encourage you to come visit the Blessed Sacrament and see where you are needed to fill in vacant spots on our schedule. Our goal is to have 2 or more committed adorers every hour.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When we imagine the disciples cowering behind locked doors on the first Easter, it is a matter of the greatest urgency that the doors get opened. They are not locked in as if in prison; rather, they have chosen to marinate in fear. Both the lock and the key stand on their side of the door, in their control. Christ breaks through this significant barrier with a message of "Peace." The risen Lord's word propels them through the door and along the path leading to the consoling image of the community living in harmony in the first reading today. What do we pray for in our tradition?

More than anything else, we pray for peace. Every Mass is an earnest prayer for peace with God, with self, with neighbor, and for peace in the world. Yet, curiously, the peace Christ offers is deeper than the mere absence of conflict. Our tradition treasures the memories of saints who were remarkably open to Christ's gift of peace even in the maelstroms of history. St. Edith Stein and St. Maximillian Kolbe, martyrs of the Holocaust, are but two examples. At the eye of a fearful storm, they stand as witnesses to the power of Christ's rising in our lives.

News from Catholic Herald Magazine:

Thank so much for your generous donations to Catholic Herald Newspaper and Catholic Herald Magazine over these many years. As you know, the diocesan newspaper transitioned into the publications of Catholic Herald Magazine nearly five years ago in September 2010. Catholic Herald Magazine is sent six times each year to some 40,000 households in our diocese, both to donors of the Annual Catholic Appeal and to donors to the magazine. Those who donate at least $15 to the ACA or directly to the magazine receive the magazine for an entire year. Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish will NO longer continue to include a Catholic Herald Sunday envelope in your offertory envelopes for 2016. In order to continue receiving Catholic Herald Magazine, please donate $15 or more in 2016 to the ACA, or directly to Catholic Herald Magazine at Diocese of Sacramento, 2110 Broadway, Sacramento, CA 95818. Those parishioners who are already receiving the magazine at present will receive a letter and donation envelope from Bishop Jaime Soto in the mail in August 2015, asking for their donation for the magazine for 2016. I look forward to your continued support of Catholic Herald Magazine and to continuing to share stories of faith with our diocesan community through our publication.

*Yours in service,
 Julie Sly, Editor, Catholic Herald*
