TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION The recent “October count” tracking the statistics of participation at Sunday Mass calls to mind the situations of churches where it is difficult or impossible for Catholics to worship freely. This is especially striking in English Catholic history, as freedom of worship was systematically dismantled at the time of the Reformation. It seems that most English people retained deeply Catholic sympathies throughout the period of religious upheaval. Catholics who refused to participate in the public worship of the Church of England were called “recusants,” and beginning with the reign of Elizabeth I, they were subject to strict penalties. Recusant literally means “a person refusing to obey a command.” Most of those laws were in force until the early 1800s, and Catholics were not entirely emancipated from the duty of Anglican worship until 1829. Recusants paid heavy fines for not attending the state church. Holding on to Catholic faith was therefore a luxury of the very rich, who maintained private chapels, and sent their daughters and sons to English convents and monastery schools on the continent. Remarkably, the first among all British peers, the Dukes of Norfolk, the hereditary Earls Marshal of England, have never given up their Catholic faith. Many of these wealthy recusant families founded the colony of Maryland, and later many members of the old Catholic families continued on to the Kentucky frontier in search of greater religious freedom.

KAAGAPAY is coming soon! Nov. 12, 2016 in the Dome-Brandsma Room from 10 to Noon. KAAGAPAY is a Filipino Outreach Project under the County's Mental Health Services Act which began in 2015. It's goal is to promote mental health awareness while being mindful of the holistic needs of the Filipino-American population. It's primary focus is stigma reduction - that seeking out supportive services is a sign of strength rather than weakness! This hopes to anchor in bulding a thriving Filipino-American community at OLMC that sustain itself while sustaining the wellness of others. LED by Roanne De Guia-Samuels, LMFT. RSVP: Pearla, 386-3403

"Make an offering of ten percent, a tithe, of all the produce which grows in your fields year after year. Bring this into the Presence of God, your God, at the place He designates for worship and there eat the tithe from your grain, wine, and oil and the first born from your herds and flocks. In this way you will learn to live in deep reverence before God, your God, as long as you live." ~ Deuteronomy 14:22-23
