Mass Intentions

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

The 2015 MASS OFFERING BOOK is now open to schedule Mass Intentions for your loved ones. As most of you know, we are permitted to schedule only one intention per Mass. Demands are very high. Please be patient and understanding. Please submit your requests in writing to the Parish Office. We will do our best to accommodate your requests on a "first come-first served" basis. You may always have your loved one enrolled in the Book of Life and it is a good alternative. NO Masses will be transferred from the 2014 book.

CALLED TO ACT IN GOD'S NAME

"Let all the nations praise you!" (Psalm 67:4) today's psalm response exclaims. In the psalms and other Hebrew scriptures, this kind of invocation is actually an invitation to God to act, to intervene in human lives in a manner that will cause everyone—not just the Chosen People—to give praise. Stated a bit more strongly, it is something of a "put up or shut up" challenge to God, the sort of strong statement the psalmists of Israel, trusting in their intimate and loving relationship with God, were not afraid to make. The Gospel has its own exclamation, announcing the appearance of the Canaanite woman with "Behold!" (Matthew 15:22) "Behold!" is a scriptural flag that tells us that God is about to act or announce something through an individual or a situation. In the case of Jesus, God was going to act through this woman, whom nobody among Jesus' followers would have believed to be an agent of the divine will. Like the psalmists, we might passively inform or perhaps even actively challenge God to do something so that everyone will come to belief, but God will always turn the tables on us. It becomes our calling, our duty (as it was for Jesus) to behold the situations and persons of our daily lives so that God can act through us, so the Kingdom can be announced through our living.

OLMC SCHOOLHOUSE ANGEL PROJECT

We are once again collecting new school supplies for our local schools. This important endeavor, under the direction of Regina Williams, will be able to provide students with new binders, back packs, pencils, pens, folders, and the like. COLLECTION BOXES are placed in the narthex during the month of August. Thank you, in advance, for your generosity and kindness. Your donations DO make a difference In the lives of students who would not otherwise have these supplies.
