TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

An old and still vital treasure in our tradition is a document called the "Apostolic Traditions," giving us a snapshot of church life in third-century Rome. Its author, Hippolytus, describes the liturgical life of the church and records the actual texts of the prayers. The way he explained the various "orders" of the church was the basis for a major reform of the rites of ordination by Pope Pius XII in 1947, and later for the Second Vatican Council. Hippolytus tells us that a bishop had to be elected by the entire people, and that ordination had to take place on a Sunday in the presence of the people, the presbyters, and neighboring bishops. The bishop-candidate is ordained by the other bishops, who impose their hands on his head while everyone else keeps a profound silence, awaiting the outpouring of the Spirit. There is a prayer of blessing said by one of them, on behalf of all, asking for the Spirit and describing his ministry. Later centuries layered new features on top of this liturgy, including the requirement for three bishop consecrators. Today, whenever a new bishop is announced (election by the people is no more), a kind of genealogy is provided, tracing his pedigree through the consecrating bishops down through the centuries to Peter and the first body of believers. Every bishop today can trace his office through his consecrators back to the beginning in a tradition called "apostolic succession."

8 THINGS HAPPY PEOPLE DO DIFFERENTLY . . . Words of encouragement

- EXPRESS GRATITUDE - Never let the things you WANT make you forget about things you HAVE.
- SAVOR LIFE'S JOYS - The real beauty of life is in each precious moment. Stop and smell the roses.
- COMMIT TO YOUR GOALS - Most people who fail at reaching their dreams, fail not from lack of ability but from lack of commitment.
- CULTIVATE OPTIMISM - Stay Positive. When it rains look for Rainbows. When it's dark look for Stars.
- STOP OVER-THINKING - Thinking too much only complicates your life and creates a problem that wasn't even there in the first place!
- AVOID SOCIAL COMPARISON - Most of our insecurities come from comparing our behind-the-scenes with other people's highlight reel.
- INCREASE FLOW EXPERIENCES - Flow is a state where you are so focused; it feels like time stands still. Doing what you love and challenging yourself is how you get there.
- NURTURE YOUR RELATIONSHIPS - The happiest people alive have deep, meaningful relationships with family, friends and God. Nurture them . . . you can start right now!
